

Noted Educator To Speak Here

An expert on the prevention of juvenile delinquency will speak at the High School auditorium Tuesday evening at 7:30 under the auspices of the city's Board of Education, it was announced this week.

Coming to Torrance to confer with school personnel during the day, Dr. Howard Lane, former head of the department for the prevention of juvenile delinquency in the city of Detroit, will speak on the problems of youth in the public meeting Tuesday evening.

The visiting speaker is now on the education staff of New York University, and is working with teachers in helping them realize the importance of school experiences to boys and girls in molding good character qualities.

"Nationally noted as a public speaker, Dr. Lane presents his ideas in a dynamic manner.

"This is an unusual opportunity for parents, teachers and citizens interested in the moral and citizenship training of our youths to hear a man of this caliber," said Walter Reinholdt, director of instruction for the Torrance schools.

Fern Avenue Elementary School's chorus will present a group of Christmas songs to open the meeting.

National Guardsman Completes Three-Week Intelligence Course

A recent graduate of the G-2 (Intelligence) School held at Camp Cooke for intelligence personnel of the 40th Infantry Division is Pfc. Homer Armagost, 18, of 1613 West 224th street.

He is assigned to the 578th Combat Engineer Battalion.

The school, which lasted for three weeks, was under the direction of Lt. Col. Douglas G. Wilkings, intelligence officer of the 40th Division.

In civilian life, Private Armagost was a student. He enlisted in the California National Guard in October of 1949 and began his active military service when the 40th Division was inducted into federal service on September 1.

Three Local Men Enlist In Navy

Enlisting in the U. S. Navy last week were two ex-Torrance High School students and a pre-medical student from the University of Kentucky, according to Vincent B. Lawler, local recruiting officer.

Signing up were Jerry Jones, son of Luther B. Jones of 20814 Shearer avenue, Junior McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus B. McGuire, 20611 Victor street, and Robert DeBenedictis, 2424 Caballo avenue.

All three plan to make the navy their career, Lawler said. DeBenedictis plans to pursue his medical studies in the Navy.

These young men are now at the Naval Training Center in San Diego where they will be stationed for the next three months. It is expected that with the high marks they made in the mental tests, they will be enrolled in one of the Navy Trade Schools upon completion of recruit training, Lawler claims.

A Navy Recruiter is at the Torrance post office on Tuesdays and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. to explain the advantages of a naval career to prospective recruits.
